TO OUR PARENTS

From out the silence of unsung sacrifices

Childhood memories stir. . .

gentle love . . .

tender care

long vigils

uncounted hours of work

Day after day.

From out the silence of unsung sacrifices

Teenage thoughts come tumbling through. . .

shadows erased

fears calmed

love guided greatness inspired

Day after day.

Today at graduation

Grateful hearts. . .

in dedication

unleash the silence

sacrifices resound

a tribute sung

Heart after heart.

Our parents

Complement of all. . .

our loves

our friendships

our strengths

our dreams

Heart after heart.

Hail to you, Sacred Heart!

We will be true to you, Sacred Heart.

Loyal sons and daughters we will ever be,
As we gratefully go on our way.

Hail to you, Sacred Heart!

For you're our own dear school, Sacred Heart.

We have learned to live and love and lead the way,

And from our hearts we proudly say --

Dear Alma Mater fair,

We pledge our love to you,

And to our glorious colors, white and blue.

With strength and courage we stand,

To will whatever God has in His plan.

All of us unite to praise in one accord,

Hail to you, dear Sacred Heart!

Class Day

During Senior Week, the week before graduation, the eighth grade is officially welcomed into the senior high school. A program including music, luncheon, and entertainment is highlighted by a welcoming address given by a senior, an eighth grader, and by Sister Paul Marie.

Left: The traditional "passing of the colors" by the senior class officers and the acceptance by the junior class officers symbolizes the passing of student authority and responsibility to the next graduating class.

Awards

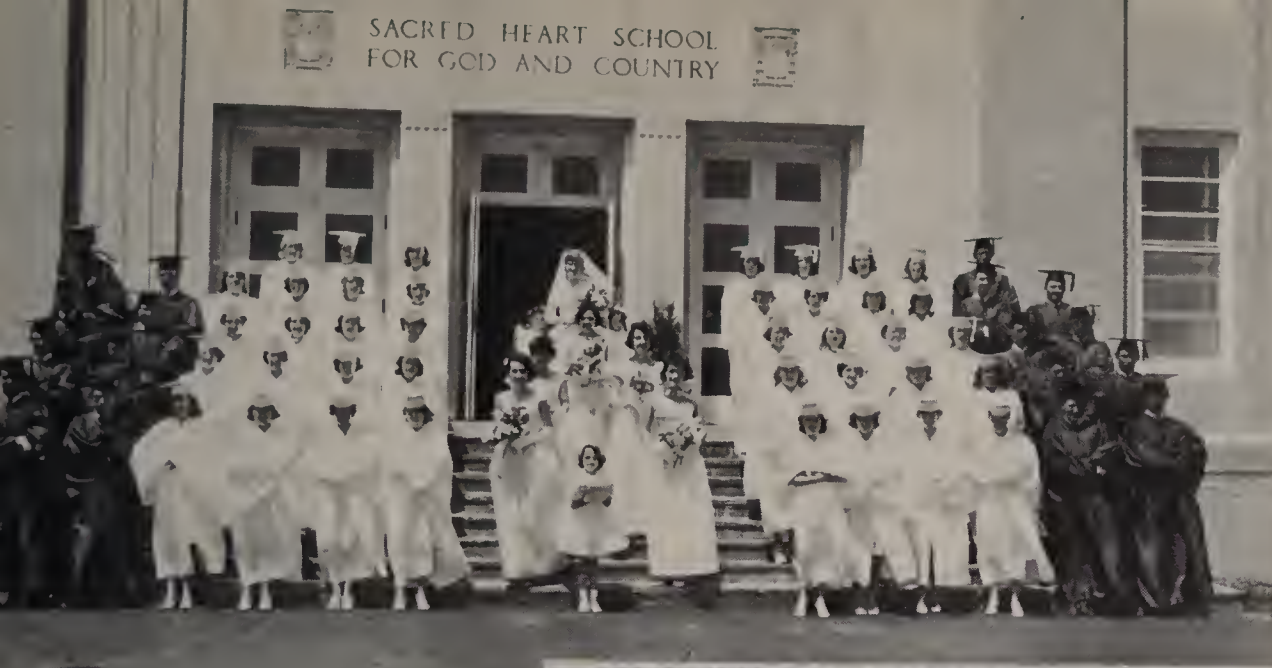

Above: Awards for academic excellence, athletic performance, journalistic skills, music ability, and many other merits are presented to deserving students by Sister Paul Marie.
